

Background

- (a) These terms and conditions have been issued by Equiti Group Ltd (Jordan), a company incorporated with limited liability in the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, existing under the laws of Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, under registration number 50248, whose registered address is at 32 Suleiman Al Nabulsi Street, Second Floor, Jouba Complex, Abdali Boulevard, Amman, Jordan and is regulated by the Jordan Securities Commission (Equiti).
- (b) Equiti operates in the business of brokerage and trading in financial products.
- (c) You (the Introducing Broker) propose to provide the Services to Equiti which entail soliciting and introducing Prospective Clients to Equiti and Equiti proposes to contract the Services from the Introducing Broker.
- (d) These terms and conditions govern the relationship between you and Equiti in relation to the provision of the Services.

1. Services

The Introducing Broker will solicit Prospective Clients in an effort to convert such Prospective Clients to Introduced Clients (the Services).

2. Accesses

- 2.1. Equiti will grant the Introducing Broker access to the Portal (the Portal Access), only to the extent necessary, to enable the Introducing Broker to maintain a record of the Introduced Clients and monitor the Remuneration.
- 2.2. For the avoidance of doubt, the Portal Access will enable the Introducing Broker to input the details of and monitor Prospective Clients and Introduced Clients only; and the Introducing Broker will have no right to input, edit, control or export any other data available on the Portal.

3. Introduced Clients

- 3.1. A Prospective Client will be deemed an Introduced Client, if that person satisfies the following conditions:

- (a) is introduced to Equiti by the Introducing Broker and applies for an Account through the referral link provided by Equiti to the Introducing Broker;
- (b) as determined by Equiti, in Equiti's sole discretion, successfully completes Equiti's Account opening process and agrees to the General Terms and Conditions; and
- (c) once the Account is open, sends a confirmation email or an introducing broker form to Equiti requesting Equiti to associate its Account with the account of the Introducing Broker.

- 3.2. In the event an Introduced Client requests Equiti to disassociate the Account of such Introduced Client from the Introducing Broker, Equiti will accede to that request and the Introducing Broker will not receive the Remuneration for that Introduced Customer.

4. Obligations of the Introducing Broker

For the duration of these terms, and in the provision of the Services, the Introducing Broker must:

- (a) act in good faith;
- (b) manage, supervise and complete the Services reliably and professionally, in accordance with these terms in all material respects;
- (c) meet any performance dates in relation to the Service to the best of its abilities;
- (d) provide the Services with reasonable skill, expertise and care and in accordance with best industry practice from time to time;
- (e) deal with Clients in a transparent manner and expressly inform Clients or Prospective Clients;
 - i. of the Introducing Broker's role as an introducing broker;

- ii. that the Introducing Broker is entitled to receive commission or other benefits as part of the Introducing Broker's role as an introducing broker in accordance with these terms;
 - iii. that the Introducing Broker and Equiti and any Affiliate of Equiti are separate and unaffiliated; and
 - iv. that a Client is a Client of Equiti and not a Client of the Introducing Broker;
- (b) in no capacity whatsoever bind or otherwise represent itself as able to bind Equiti in relation to trades with Clients or Prospective Clients nor act as an agent, appointed representative or as an authorised representative of Equiti;
 - (c) not register or operate for and on behalf a Client an Account or execute any Transaction in relation to which Equiti provides services to the Client pursuant to the General Terms and Conditions, unless the Introducing Broker is duly authorised by the Client pursuant to the Regulatory Rules and Equiti's procedures;
 - (d) not accept any funds from a Client or Prospective Client on behalf of Equiti;
 - (e) in no way represent to any Prospective Client or Client that Equiti will provide a guarantee against losses or limit the losses of a Client or that Equiti may waive any of its requirements in relation to an Account;
 - (f) not make misrepresentations to Clients, Prospective Clients or other persons relating to Equiti;
 - (g) not make any recommendation, including trading recommendations, give advice, accept any commitment or responsibility, or guarantee on any matter for or on behalf of Equiti;
 - (h) not issue, publish, distribute or utilise Promotional Material without the prior written consent of Equiti;
 - (i) adhere to Equiti's KYC and CDD checks in a timely manner provide the details and evidence of the Introducing Broker's business activities at Equiti's request; and
 - (j) notify Equiti of any regulatory or legal investigation or illegal interference into the Introducing Broker or Equiti's commercial affairs, and disclose to Equiti details of any previous sanctions imposed on the Introducing Broker.

5. Remuneration

- 5.1. The parties agree that Equiti will compensate the Introducing Broker for the provision of the Services, by advancing to the Introducing Broker the Remuneration.
- 5.2. All amounts payable by the parties under these terms, including the Remuneration, are stated inclusive of VAT or any other applicable tax.

6. Right to audit

- 6.1. Equiti will have the right to examine the Introducing Broker's books and records relating to the Remuneration or Services on reasonable grounds.
- 6.2. For the purposes of clause 6.1, the Introducing Broker grants to Equiti and its professional advisers a right of access to the Introducing Broker's premises, systems, data storage, documents and information on the giving of reasonable notice during business hours.
- 6.3. For the purposes of clause 6, Equiti and its professional advisers will use reasonable endeavours to ensure there is no interruption to the business of the Introducing Broker.

7. Confidential Information

- 7.1. Subject to clause 7.2, the Introducing Broker irrevocably agrees and undertakes, for the duration of these terms and after the termination thereof, to Equiti:

- (a) to use its best endeavours to keep confidential, and its officers, employees, agents and professional and other advisers keep confidential, all Confidential Information; and
- (b) not to give, disclose, sell, transfer, charge or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the Confidential Information to any other person; or
- (c) not to use the Confidential Information other than for the purposes of the transactions contemplated under these terms.

7.2. Clause 7.1 does not apply to:

- (a) information which is or becomes publicly available (otherwise than as a result of a breach of clause 7.1); and
- (b) the disclosure of information to the extent such disclosure is required by law, any court of competent jurisdiction, any governmental, official or regulatory authority, or any binding judgment, order or requirement of any other competent authority.

8. Intellectual property

8.1. Under no circumstances will these terms be deemed to transfer any interest to the Introducing Broker in Equiti's IP.

8.2. Equiti may grant, in writing, to the Introducing Broker a non-exclusive, personal, royalty-free license to use some of Equiti's IP for the purpose of the Services. Such license will set out the conditions of use of Equiti's IP which the Introducing Broker must abide by. Such conditions of use may include, without limitation the manner, context, location and timeframe in which the Introducing Broker can use Equiti's IP.

8.3. The Introducing Broker:

- (a) understands and accepts that it has no right to use Equiti's IP unless Equiti grants the license described in clause 8.2 to the Introducing Broker and where such license is granted, will use Equiti's IP exactly and only as permitted within Equiti's conditions of use;

- (b) understands and accepts that it has no right to allow third parties to use Equiti's IP;
- (c) understands and accepts that it is not permitted to use any trademark or trade name of its own or of a third party in connection with the Services unless permitted by Equiti in writing;
- (d) undertakes not to create, use or register (or permit, authorise or cause a third party to create, use or register) any material including without limitation marketing material, branding, trademarks, trade names or get-up which resemble Equiti's IP in any way, or which would therefore be likely to confuse or mislead the public or any section of the public with respect to whether such branding, trademarks, trade names or get-up belong to, or are connected in any way with, Equiti.

8.4. Upon the termination of these terms, any license to use the Equiti's IP as granted by Equiti to the Introducing Broker under clause 8.2 will expire and the Introducing Broker will cease to use such Intellectual Property and will return any physical embodiment of the Intellectual Property (including any copies) in its possession or control to Equiti.

9. Data protection

Both parties will comply with all applicable data protection and privacy laws and regulations under Applicable Law.

10. Representations and warranties

For the duration of these terms, the Introducing Broker represents and warrants to Equiti, that:

- (a) if the Introducing Broker is a legal person:
 - (i) it is a company, duly incorporated and validly existing under the laws of the country or place of its current incorporation; and

- (ii) it is not bankrupt and able to pay its debts as they fall due; or
- (b) if the Introducing Broker is a natural person:
 - (i) it is a natural person having the full capacity to enter into these terms; and
 - (ii) it is not insolvent and is able to pay its debts as they fall due; and
- (c) it has the legal right, full power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under these terms;
- (d) these terms, when accepted, will constitute valid, legal and binding obligations on the Introducing Broker in accordance with its terms;
- (e) the acceptance of, and the performance by the Introducing Broker of these terms will not result in any breach of any provision of its constitutive documents or result in any claim by a third party against any other party or result in the breach of any law or regulation binding the Introducing Broker;
- (f) all authorisations required to enable that party to lawfully enter into, exercise its rights and comply with its obligations in these terms have been obtained and are in full force and effect;
- (g) if requested by a regulatory authority or law enforcement agency, the Introducing Broker will cooperate with any regulatory authority or law enforcement agency in relation to the provision of the Services to Equiti; and
- (h) in the course of providing the Services, it shall ensure compliance with Applicable Law and the Regulatory Rules, including:
 - i. maintaining adequate policies and procedures to ensure compliance with the relevant requirements;

- ii. promptly report to Equiti any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by the Introducing Broker in connection with the performance of these terms; and
- iii. ensuring that any officer, employee, agent, representative or such other person connected to the Introducing Broker complies with the relevant requirements.

11. Restrictive covenants

The Introducing Broker irrevocably agrees, undertakes and covenants with Equiti that, for the duration of these terms and for a period of two years after the termination thereof, the Introducing Broker will not, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of Equiti:

- (a) solicit or entice away, endeavour to solicit or entice away, or cause to be solicited or enticed away from Equiti any manager, employee of Equiti, whether or not such person would commit any breach of the contract of employment by reason of leaving the service with Equiti;
- (b) solicit or entice away, endeavour to solicit or entice away, or cause to be solicited or enticed away from Equiti any Client;
- (c) employ any person who is, or was, in the duration of these terms, directly or indirectly engaged by Equiti and who by reason of such engagement is or may be likely to be in possession of any Confidential Information or trade secrets relating to the business of Equiti; and
- (d) canvass, solicit, or entice away, endeavour to canvass, solicit or entice away, or have any business dealings with any person who is, or was, in the duration of these terms:
 - i. provided with goods or services related to the business of Equiti or any supplier of goods or services to Equiti related to the business of Equiti; or

- ii. negotiating with Equiti in relation to any such supply by or to Equiti of goods or services related to the business of Equiti.

12. Liability

Equiti will not be liable to the Introducing Broker for costs, claims, demands, liabilities, damages and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) incurred by the Introducing Broker in connection with any prosecution or civil claims made by any third party, (including a Client or Prospective Client), against the Introducing Broker, or the defence of any such prosecution or civil claim, relating to the breach or alleged breach by the Introducing Broker of these terms.

13. Indemnity

Without prejudice to the rights and remedies of Equiti pursuant to these terms, the Introducing Broker will indemnify Equiti against:

- (a) all costs, claims, demands, liabilities, damages and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) incurred by Equiti in connection with any prosecution or civil claims made by any third party, including a Client or Prospective Client, against Equiti, or the defence of any such prosecution or civil claim; and
- (b) all costs and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) reasonably incurred by Equiti in connection with any claims or demands made by Equiti against the Introducing Broker, in each case relating to the breach or alleged breach of any of the obligations of the Introducing Broker of these terms or of any other agreement that the Introducing Broker may have entered into with a Client.

14. Termination

- 14.1. These terms will come into force on the date that you accept these terms and remain in force until terminated in accordance with these terms.

- 14.2. Each of the parties will have the right at any time to terminate these terms, without cause, and without three need for a judicial order, by giving five Business Days' notice in writing to the other party.

- 14.3. Equiti will have the right at any time to terminate these terms with immediate effect, for any of the reasons listed in this clause 14.3, without the need for a judicial order and without the need for written notice to the Introducing Broker:

- (a) if Equiti, in its sole discretion, is of the opinion that the Introducing Broker to be in breach of any provision of these terms;
- (b) if Equiti, in its sole discretion, considers that the Introducing Broker will, for any reason, cease to be able to satisfy its obligations under these terms or be prevented from satisfying its obligations;
- (c) Equiti, in its sole discretion, is of the opinion that the Introducing Broker is acting in bad faith or the Introducing Broker, or its activities, are adversely affecting, damaging or harmful to:
 - i. the reputation of Equiti;
 - ii. a Prospective Client; or
 - iii. a Client;
- (d) if the Introducing Broker defaults to a material extent in the performance of the provisions of another agreement with Equiti;
- (e) the Introducing Broker, as applicable:
 - i. has entered into liquidation or receivership, or a court order has been made to that effect; or
 - ii. is insolvent and unable to pay its debts as they fall due.

- 14.4. Upon the termination of these terms for any reason whatsoever, the Portal Access and any other access granted by Equiti to the Introducing Broker, for the purpose of the Services, will be revoked.

14.5. The termination of these terms, in accordance with the provisions herein, is without prejudice to any of the rights and obligations of the parties under these terms existing immediately prior to the termination date.

14.6. Clauses 7, 8, 13, 21, 22, and 23 will survive the termination date and continue to apply notwithstanding the termination of these terms.

15. Set off

Without prejudice to any other rights to which Equiti may be entitled, Equiti may at any time and without notice to the Introducing Broker set-off any amount (whether actual or contingent, present or future and whether arising under these terms or otherwise) owed by the Introducing Broker to Equiti against any amount (whether actual or contingent, present or future and whether arising under these terms or otherwise) owed by Equiti to the Introducing Broker. For these purposes, Equiti may ascribe a commercially reasonable value to any amount which is contingent or which for any other reason is unascertained.

16. Amendments

We may amend these Terms at our sole discretion, by posting the amended and restated Terms on our Website. We may notify you in writing of such amendments. The amendment to the Terms will be deemed effective and accepted by you within five Business Days of posting on our Website, unless you choose to terminate these terms.

17. Assignment

17.1. Equiti may without the prior written consent of the Introducing Broker assign, transfer, sub-contract in whole or in part any rights under these terms, to an Affiliate of Equiti.

17.2. The Introducing Broker may not without the prior written consent of the Equiti assign, transfer, sub-contract whole or in part any right under these terms, to a third party.

18. No agency, partnership or employment relationship

18.1. Nothing in these terms is intended, or will be deemed, to constitute a party the agent, employee or partner of the other party or authorise a party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other party.

18.2. Each party confirms it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

19. Entire agreement

These terms constitute the entire agreement and understanding between the parties relating to its subject matter and supersede previous agreements, arrangements or understandings (whether written or oral) between the parties relating to such subject matter.

20. Force Majeure

Equiti will not be liable to the Introducing Broker for any failure, hindrance or delay in performing its obligations under these terms where such failure, hindrance or delay arises directly or indirectly from circumstances outside Equiti's control. Such force majeure events will include, any technical difficulties such as telecommunications or computer failures or disruptions, non-availability of Equiti's technical services, failure of any exchange, clearing house or settlement system, declared or imminent war, terrorism, civil unrest, catastrophes of nature, strikes, lock-outs, boycotts or blockades including cases where only part of the parties' functions are affected by such events.

21. General

21.1. These terms may be provided to you in a language other than English. In case of any inconsistency between the non-English and English version of these terms, the English version shall prevail.

21.2. The rights and remedies provided in these terms are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies provided by law.

21.3. Notwithstanding that any provision of these terms may prove to be illegal or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of these terms will continue in full force and effect.

21.4. These terms are not exclusive, and Equiti retains the right to enter into similar agreements with other introducing brokers at any time.

22. Notices

22.1. All notices required to be given or information supplied by either of the parties to the other pursuant to the provisions of these terms must be in writing and must be sent either:
