

Important Notice – Beware of Fraudulent Activities and Impersonation of Equiti Brokerage (Seychelles) Limited

Equiti Brokerage (Seychelles) Limited (“Equiti”) has become aware that unauthorized third parties are fraudulently misusing our name, logo, and branding to impersonate the company and mislead prospective clients.

Please note:

- Equiti only communicates through official channels (i.e. its website “www.equiti.com”, trading platform, CRM and official email ending with @equiti.com) and authorized representatives should clearly identify themselves.
- Any documents, emails, or platforms not directly provided by Equiti may be fraudulent.
- Equiti never requests deposits, payments through unofficial channels or through other third-party platforms.

If you suspect fraud or receive suspicious communications, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Your security is important to us. Always verify communications directly with Equiti Brokerage (Seychelles) Limited. Equiti shall bear no responsibility for any losses arising from dealings with unauthorized individuals or fraudulent websites misrepresenting themselves as Equiti representatives.